

V.K. Fields – Biography

Minister Valerie K. Fields has been blessed to preach, teach, minister, and travel the world as an entrepreneur and servant on the mission fields of Uganda, a nation in east Africa.

She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism and Mass Communication—with a specialty in Public Relations—from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She also earned a bachelors, masters, and doctoral degree in Theology from New Covenant Bible Institute. For 25 years, she has owned V.K. Fields & Co. PR PROS, an award-winning public relations and content creation agency based in Raleigh, NC; and she is also a faculty member in the Hussman School of Journalism and Media at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Personal:

Valerie is founder of Miracle Ministries Inc., an outreach organization that provides Christian counseling and support for individuals and families, and assistance for victims and survivors of domestic violence. Through her ministry, Valerie also founded the Millionaires in Training (MiT) youth entrepreneurship program, which teaches and prepares young people to become business professionals and business owners.

In 2010, Fields authored her first children's book titled, "The Bizeebee Family Business" to help teach youth about basic business concepts. She also wrote and published a Christian novel titled, "Forbidden Fruit," which is available online. Her latest book is titled, "The Anointing of Ease," and shares valuable insights and guidance about walking in God's purpose for your life and receiving His promised blessings. Valerie is a passionate speaker and teacher and conducts prayer training seminars and workshops for those desiring to walk victoriously in life and experience supernatural breakthroughs on a daily basis.

Valerie's favorite scripture is Proverbs 3:5-6: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

#